Shelves: philosophy. Jantzen's Becoming Divine is a fantastic philosophical undertaking in Post-structuralist feminist thought and philosophy of religion. Employing Lacanian psychoanalysis and Derridian Deconstruction, Jantzen destabilizes the basic binaries that allows philosophy of religion to remain predominately patriarchal and violent. She then offers a symbolic of natality, rather than the masculinist symbolic of death, as a way of re-imagining philosophy of religion in the feminist ...

Finally, orthodox boundaries dissolve with the contemporary feminist suggestion that the erotic is divine. THE EROS ANALOGY. The confluence of devotional and erotic love may be at the heart of eros in the West. Eros is an ecstatic movement of the self toward a divine or human Other. Desire for an Other draws one out of egocentric existence; it embraces difference and yearns toward the future.
